

Level 4

Certificate in Education and Training

The City and Guilds 6502 / 41 Level 4 Certificate in Education and Training 12 Day Course over 12 Weeks is a first stage teaching qualification, and is the next progression from the 6520 Level 3. It will give candidates a fundamental understanding of the roles and responsibilities of a teacher / trainer in relation to legislation, equality, diversity, inclusivity and meeting the needs of learners. It includes the use of initial and diagnostic assessments and requires candidates to plan and deliver inclusive teaching and learning, carry out assessments and use resources effectively. All candidates must have access to 30 hours of teaching. This qualification is also suitable for those delivering education and training in any learning environment.

Who is the qualification for ?

- For candidates who work or who want to work as teachers/trainers in the further education and skills sector.
- For candidates who have just started a teaching/training role.
- For teachers/trainers who are seeking career progression in their area of work.
- For candidates who work with learners on a one-to-one basis.
- For candidates who teach in industry.
- For candidates who have already achieved some learning and development units that can be carried forward into this qualification.
- For candidates who are assessors and wish to achieve a teaching/training qualification.
- For candidates who have completed the City and Guilds Trainer skills or Introduction to Training qualifications (7300,1103-01 or 6258).
