English for Au Pairs

South Buckinghamshire is a popular destination for au pairs and Beaconsfield School of English provides a part-time English for Au Pairs living in the area course to help them improve their English during their time in England.

The course is suitable for au pairs who already have a good level of general English. The teaching focuses on the four main skills - speaking, listening, reading and writing - and on developing knowledge of general vocabulary, useful everyday phrases, informal English, idioms and colloquial English. The course also covers aspects of British culture and topics of current interest.

Many au pairs decide to take an English examination during their stay. If you are planning to take an English examination such as IELTS, Cambridge First or Cambridge Advanced, we can also help you prepare for the exam during your English for Au Pairs course.

The minimum age to register on the English for Au Pairs course is 18. The lessons take place in a convenient central location in Beaconsfield Old Town, close to local bus routes and with free parking very close by.

The lessons are on two mornings per week, on Wednesdays and Fridays from 10am-11.30am. The well-appointed classrooms are warm, comfortable and quiet and in a modern building.
