

INTRODUCTION

Purr-fectly happy pet care is a cat & small animal pet sitting and homecare service run by Registered veterinary nurse Heather Thorne RVN, in Barry and the surrounding areas.

Purr-fectly happy pet care aims to provide pet sitting for cats and small animals in the comfort of their own home, a STAY-cation for your furry friend!

Does your pet require medication? Have you been dreaming about that purr-fect holiday?

As a registered veterinary nurse Heather can offer a more unique service to assist you with administering medications, nail clipping, basic grooming, health checks and health advice for your pet, all in the comfort of your own home.

Heather has 10 years veterinary industry experience & started working within a veterinary practice in 2009. Heather undertook 2 years of training, written exams and practical testing, whilst working full time, attending college 1 day a week. Heather qualified as a veterinary nurse in 2011 and has been working in and around Cardiff.

As a Registered veterinary nurse Heather has the knowledge, understanding and compassion to look after your pets and provide you and your furry family member(s) with expert advice.

We can also provide pet sitting and homecare services for rabbits, guinea pigs, reptiles and small animals in the comfort of their own home. Avoid the stress of transport and let us come to you!

If you require any additional information or would like to book a meet and greet appointment, please get in touch today.

info@purrfectlyhappypetcare.co.uk

07709480388

www.facebook.com/purrfectlyhappypetcare

BARRY, SOUTH WALES, UK

