DJM welcome new Associate Director to Litigation Team

Douglas-Jones Mercer Solicitors are pleased to announce the arrival of Russell Price who joins the Dispute Resolution team as an Associate Director.

Russell was previously with a large National Commercial firm based in Cardiff and joins DJM having previously dealt with an extensive corporate client base of household names and has experience in a wide array of complex and high value commercial property disputes. During his career to date he has dealt with disputes concerning some of the highest profile commercial property developments in Wales and has vast experience in dealing with public sector organisations.

During his time as an Associate in Cardiff he has been involved in heavyweight cases of up to £15m in value.

"I am delighted to be joining DJM at a particularly exciting time and I look forward to developing the firm's outstanding reputation even further", remarked Russell. "It is my aim to work closely with the firm's excellent Dispute Resolution and Commercial Property teams and the Directors, to help develop the firm by concentrating on clients, their expectations, and to deliver excellent client service."

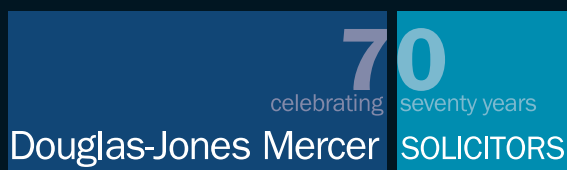

Philip Graham, Head of DJM's Dispute Resolution department, commented, "Russell is a fantastic addition to our team and his reputation and experience is second to none. I am sure that our clients will benefit from him joining us due to his level of expertise and knowledge."

Since 1946 Douglas-Jones Mercer has always been a well-regarded law firm, in particular since the rapid growth of its Commercial arm back in the mid 1990's, it is praised by the Legal 500 as a 'totally trustworthy and efficient team'. Likewise Russell is lauded as a leading individual in his field by the Legal 500, one of only 3 in that field practicing in Wales and the only one practicing outside Cardiff.

The firm prides itself on reputation for delivering a quality service at a sensible cost and as such DJM represents and advises some of the largest and most successful businesses in South West Wales and beyond with many regional and national clients. DJM make it their business to know their client's business.

Over recent times the practice as a whole has undergone a period of significant change and the commercial departments in particular have seen considerable growth and have become extremely successful.

With over 70 years' experience the firm has a solid base and continues to build on its own success. The individuals within DJM are both professional and friendly in their approach and consequently are confident that DJM can make a significant positive impact for their commercial clients.
