SYNOPSIS OF THE PLAY Noah and his family are hard-working, honourable people, in contrast to the "wild people" of the valley. "So many jobs" is a cheerful action song depicting their daily chores. God is angry with the "wild people" for spoiling the world by littering, fighting, stealing etc. God tells Noah that a big flood will be sent. Noah must build an ark to preserve each species of animal and to save his family and mankind. The "wild people" are sceptical and conflict occurs when they attempt to destroy the ark. At last the ark is ready, and creatures from all over the world have congregated nearby, summoned by God. A final attack on the ark is thwarted with help from the animals. The animals board the boat, the storm starts. When the storm abates, the food is running low and there is a wistful song "Will it All Be for Nothing?" Noah sends the raven and the dove to seek dry land. The raven fails, but the dove brings back an olive twig, signifying dry land nearby. God sends a lovely rainbow over the world, and promises to never send another flood. The play ends in celebratory mood with a rocky song - "Well done Mr Noah".

"A Brand New Star" 40 mins NATIVITY CONCERT FOR CHILDREN

A very simple poignant script telling the traditional Nativity story. For KS1, KS2 and special needs. Very popular, sold worldwide, especially to the UK and USA. There are eight modern original songs, as listed below. Schools sometimes add their own selection of other traditional carols to produce a longer concert. Otherwise, the production is about 40 minutes in length. Last time I staged it in my own school it was performed by 85 children including choir, but it can be performed by a group as small as 15.

The package contains script, CD, and very basic sheet music (melody line with chords) The CD contains two copies of each song, one with vocals for rehearsing, one "backing track" for performance. Therefore no musical ability is needed to stage this play.
