DO YOU HAVE EMPLOYEES WITH HEARING LOSS?

Are your employees struggling or stressed at work because of hearing loss?

Do they find it challenging to complete the 'hearing' aspects of their job?

Are you unsure how to help them?

At 121 Captions we provide a cost-effective solution to help deaf employees hear and participate in:

- meetings
- teleconferences and videoconferences
- training sessions
- webinars
- events and presentations.

And, importantly, our services can also help your organisation to comply with any legal requirements to make appropriate and reasonable adjustments for disabled employees.

The live captioning service provided by 121 has been fantastic, ensuring that I do not miss out on anything during meetings. Its flexibility and availability has been outstanding in particular with impromptu meetings.

Miraj, Analyst, Barclays

HOW DOES IT WORK?

With 3 easy steps your employees can once again keep up-to-speed with meetings and teleconferences:

1. Our remote captioner dials in to the meeting or call.
2. They listen in and type whatever is said at up to 300 words per minute.
3. Your employee receives those captions, word by word, on their laptop, tablet or smartphone within 1 second of them being spoken.

It's that simple. Plus, as soon as captioning has finished we email your employee a free, real-time transcript which serves as a useful contemporaneous meeting note not just for them, but for the other participants too.

WHAT WILL IT COST?

Potentially nothing! You or your employee may be entitled to funding to cover the cost of our captioning.
