Whether you require 1 desk or 60 desks, a single office, a suite or a large open plan space, we take the time to understand your requirements. Regal Court plans ahead and prepares the office, thereby reducing the strain of a move or start up, leaving you ready for business.

Our communal areas have a contemporary feel and the offices themselves are light and airy and come fully furnished ready to move in to. Regal Court has been well established within the local business community for many years and is home to a diverse range of organisations of varying sizes, operating in a number of different sectors, many of whom have been here for several years and have expanded in that time.

A unique 'feel good' break out area for informal meetings and shared coffee making facilities help to create an environment in which businesses can network, thrive and grow.

Meeting Rooms

Here at Regal Court we have a comprehensive range of meeting and syndicate rooms that are available both to our resident clients and external organisations looking for first class facilities in a highly convenient location.

Occupying an impressive corner position on the High Street, the centre is just 7 minutes' walk from Slough train station and bus station, 15 minutes' drive from Heathrow Airport and has good access to the M4 / M25. Our location ensures that delegates have access from the South and South West and the surrounding region including Berkshire, Buckinghamshire, Surrey, Hampshire, Oxfordshire and Greater London.

Dali & Warhol are located on the second floor, both rooms can hold up to 8 delegates with the ability to combine the two into The Dali Suite which holds up to 16-24 depending on the layout. The Warhol room also has the option of a plasma screen to use our click-share device.

Rothko is ideal for small groups of up to 4 delegates, having 1-1 meetings, interviews or appraisals.

Hofmann is a dedicated boardroom style room for 8 delegates, with a plasma screen and resident computer, providing full AV capability and video conferencing facilities.

Picasso has been equipped with the latest interactive white board and next generation enterprise and educational wireless infrastructure. It has a resident PC in the room as well as a convenient facility for you to bring your own laptop. This room is ideal for classroom-based training including technical IT-based sessions. The Picasso suite can accommodate 16 delegates in boardroom style or 30 in theatre style.
