A.L. CONSULTING

Jack has been creating illustrations for me for some time which have gone into everything from magazine articles, presentations and books and covered topics ranging from bee-keeping to management psychology. He works quickly and delivers excellent illustrations which accurately meet the brief. I have no hesitation in highly recommending him.

Jack has proved an excellent addition to the Lancaster Guardian newspaper, turning around weekly cartoons based on news stories at sometimes late notice with professionalism and skill. He is and able to produce his own interpretations on the issues of the day. I would certainly not hesitate to recommend him as a cartoonist, illustrator or artist.
