

Building and maintaining strong supplier relationships is challenging. Businesses these days are more aware of the market and choice they have when choosing suppliers. They expect great service, but this has typically either been expensive or hard to deliver for traditional window cleaning companies. Therefore traditional companies have experimented with the approach – often resulting in unreliable, untrusted and unsatisfactory service.

Welcome to Pure Flex Cleaning LTD

Pure Flex Cleaning LTD make it possible to achieve a high level of service quality that is reliable and built around your business. Commercial cleaning services for both external and internal glass, cladding and fascia.

You don't have to change your operations or work around us, we put you the client first and work around your needs. This is achieved in our detailed approach to work. We provide a full pack of information that covers every aspect of our work from certifications to health and safety.
