your day, your way

Judy Mansfield is a professionally trained celebrant, available to design and deliver a ceremony that is written around you, and which celebrates your love.

make your day unique

using a celebrant puts you at the centre of your day

Choose your location, your preferred time of day or night, with the music you love and with readings you have selected. Exchange rings and make your commitment before your family and friends with meaningful vows written especially for you. Why settle for what everyone else has? Make your ceremony unique, just like you...
